

Announcing the Graduates of Our 2018-2019 Spring Transformational Leadership Program™

For Immediate Release

Bellevue, NE, June 6, 2019 – ConvergenceCoaching®, LLC, a national leadership and management consulting firm that serves the public accounting profession, is proud to announce the 2018-2019 Spring Transformational Leadership Program™ (TLP) graduating class!

"It is so gratifying to see the enormous growth made by our TLP participants this year," commented Jennifer Wilson, Co-founder and Partner at ConvergenceCoaching. "Developing the courage to say what needs to be said, bringing ideas for change to their firms, practicing the skills to coach and mentor others, and finding that they can cause their own success are just a few of big take-aways mentioned at the Spring TLP graduation recently. We were so happy to see several reaching important life and career goals including being promoted to partner or now leading meaningful practices or offices as well."

"At the start, the TLP program provided me 360 feedback which was invaluable to shaping my leadership goals and commitments. True gold! After the TLP journey, I am a more compassionate, communicative leader and have definitely changed for the good. There is more work to do and I will keep growing and getting better. Still, going through the TLP helped me understand the power and impact of my mindset in a way that has been truly life changing" said Elinor Litwack, TLP graduate and Senior Manager of Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman.
