ConvergenceCoaching® Launches New How To Remote and Blended Work Videos

For Immediate Release:

Bellevue, NE, October 20,
2021- ConvergenceCoaching®, LLC, a national leadership and management consulting firm that helps public accounting and consulting firms achieve success, is proud to announce the launch of their new Remote and Blended Work Video Learning Programs!

According to the 2020 Anytime, Anywhere Work™ Survey results, over 81% of firms expect an increase in people working remote going forward. ConvergenceCoaching® developed the remote and blended work video learning programs to support firms in driving further adoption and effectiveness of remote and blended work. These on-demand DIY videos allow firms to share with their teams in smaller, manageable segments and use them over time to ensure that all team members benefit from new ways of thinking and working.

Renee Moelders, Partner, shares her excitement about the timely launch of this new product. "We are thrilled to share our years of remote experience in these short and simple videos," Renee commented. "Remote and blended work are here to stay. As an organization that has been 100% remote since our start nearly 22 years ago, we are in the perfect position to provide real-life strategies and solutions to help firms overcome challenges when managing team members and serving clients in a remote and blended environment, including how to handle the persistent objections that still exist!"

Chris Roberts, National Director of Talent Management and Learning, shares his experience with the guidance of ConvergenceCoaching on remote work at his firm, CohnReznick, LLP: "ConvergenceCoaching is an authority on how to successfully design and implement workplace flexibility in professional services firms. We partnered with them to remotely train our Partners and People & Culture team on the market perspective of flex, required mindset shifts and practical tools and resources to make flex a win for our Firm, people and clients. We leveraged ConvergenceCoaching's deep insight into the topic, their Anytime, Anywhere Work™ (ATAWW) research and their own experience as a 100% remote company."
